

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR MCKENZIE: ...what we should do. We should be serving kids wherever we can in regular classrooms and giving them every opportunity to have equal opportunity, equal education, opportunities and access with all the diversity that's there in a regular classroom, but I, again, remind you that I believe all of us know this is a very difficult decision, that we, in fact, will not do things in this body that are going to damage or interfere with those rights of those children or the delivery of services to those children, but that, in fact, we have a system that is growing and growing and growing, and it is time to say, let's find out why, let's find out how to change it, and let's focus on what we need to do to change it in the next two years. The money issue that we are on right now in the amendment is one part, but the bigger issue is what we will face in the future as we try to get a handle on what we are doing and how we are doing it, and, again,...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR MCKENZIE: ...I ask...that I am supporting the Bromm-Bohlke amendment, and ask your support as well.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator. Senator Bohlke.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Question.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I see five hands. The question before you is, shall debate cease on the first section of the Bromm amendment? All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Senator McKenzie...excuse me, Senator Bohlke.

SENATOR BOHLKE: I waive off.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Please record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 6 nays to cease debate, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Debate ceases. The Chair recognizes Senator Bromm to close...Senator Bohlke to close on the first section of the amendment. Senator Bohlke.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Madam President, members, as we start to close,
