

Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, I support this amendment for the reasons Senator Wesely gave. We are trying to encourage people to work and this would do that. I think of a commercial that a fellow that some of you may be old enough to remember, a guy named Arthur Godfrey, and he used to give advertisement...Senator Withem is shaking his head, he doesn't remember anything, so forget him...always would give this commercial for Lipton tea and he would laugh, heh, heh, heh, but anyway, they got Lipton tea and they had a flow-through bag, so it's like making, elongating the bag and then folding the ends up and tying a string to it so the tea would flow through it and he would always say, not more tea, just more flavor. So with this amendment that Senator Linds...I meant, Senator Wesely is offering, it's not going to cost the state any significant amount but it will give more in the way of an incentive to the people we're trying to encourage to work. So I hope you will support the amendment. And if you have any questions of any variety, Senator Wesely will answer them.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Bohlke, would you like to close? Closing is waived. The question is the adoption of the amendment. All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of that portion of the Bohlke amendment.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The Bohlke amendment is adopted. Let me pause one second and introduce some guests of Senator Janssen. Under the north balcony, we have Larry Baus from Lincoln, Al and Chris Dolezal from Columbus, Jim Clarke from Aurora, and Maurice Jantze from Milford. They are all members of the Nebraska Retail Grocers Association who...and they all are individuals who participated in the serving of the sausage dinner this evening. So we would very definitely like to welcome you here. Senator Bohlke, FA277. Excuse me, Mr. Clerk, I'll let you announce it.

CLERK: Mr. President, I believe FA277 is next. (See page 2478 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Bohlke.
