

SENATOR BROMM: And as you pointed out, there are other representatives on the commission related to special education, besides those that you mentioned.

SENATOR STUHR: Right, right.

SENATOR BROMM: Okay, thank you. I would support the Stuhr amendment to the amendment. I think...I think she's absolutely correct, you need some balance of people that are involved in the total school financial picture. And I see nothing wrong with providing this balance. It looks like there will be ample special education participation from other members, as well as the people that are involved in special education on a daily basis, from the state department and so forth will also be quite involved in the information that's developed with this commission. So I would support the amendment.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Bromm. Senator Withem

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Stuhr, an apology ahead of time for doing what we do way too much of this session. I was off the floor, came back on and I heard the topic of discussion, involves the makeup of the Special Education Accountability Commission.

SENATOR STUHR: Yes.

SPEAKER WITHEM: And what change are you proposing to make?

SENATOR STUHR: In the bill we are adding three new members to the Special Education Commission, one...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Okay, refresh my memory, who are the three that we're adding?

SENATOR STUHR: We're adding an additional special education administrator, a school district business manager and one representative from a private school. What my amendment is doing is just changing, which would bring the number of special ed administrators to two, and I'd like to change that to...over to just a school administrator and not the special ed administrator, so that we would still have one, but we have more balance on the panel.

SPEAKER WITHEM: So you're changing which to which? One more
