

time, I'm having difficulty.

SENATOR STUHR: Okay. The bill.... Okay, at present there is one special education administrator on the Accountability...

SPEAKER WITHEM: And that's current membership?

SENATOR STUHR: That's current. The bill suggested that there be two. What my amendment does is just lower that back down to the one, but change the other administrator to one not involved...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Okay.

SENATOR STUHR: ...in special education, to add the balance because I've been meeting with my superintendents and they're saying that, you know, they would like more balance and more say...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yeah.

SENATOR STUHR: ...you know, in the...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Would there be a...

SENATOR STUHR: ...and not as many involved directly in the special education area, because there's just a...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yeah, yeah.

SENATOR STUHR: ...different...(inaudible) responsible.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yeah, I understand, Senator Stuhr. I am not supportive of the Stuhr amendment. I understand what she wants to do. Senator McKenzie, could I ask you a question?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator McKenzie.

SENATOR MCKENZIE: Certainly, yes.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yeah, I'm remembering that you and I had some discussions concerning the makeup of the Special Education Accountability Commission. There was a concern that I had concerning the makeup of this commission that the...there's an area of the state around the Omaha area that individuals that
