

discussion, so we have an understanding of how we are going to divide the question, and the rest of the body, if we could stand at ease for a moment. Thank you. Thank you for your patience.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR HALL: The amendment is divisible. It has been divided. It is divided into 11 parts, and they are as follows: The first section, for purposes of the division, are the technical changes that amount to E & R amendments. They begin on page 8 of the amendment, we are dealing with AM2507. The first division includes the following lines.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, are you giving us the divisions in the order in which they will be taken?

SENATOR HALL: No, I am not.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR HALL: I am giving you the divisions in the order in which I have them listed so we can get that straight, and then we will tinkers to evers to chance this together somehow in terms of what...which ones are going to be taken up in what order.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So we shouldn't assign any numbers at this point, just make a notation that it's division.

SENATOR HALL: I would assign a number, and then we are going to go to the alphabet I think in terms of...if we could do it that way, that's the way we've got it...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR HALL: ...to make it as clear as possible.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. We are dealing now with the first division, if you'll mark on AM2507, on page 8, all of lines 2 through all of line 6 is part of number one. Then move down on the same page to line 18, all of line 18 through the semicolon on line 23; 18 through the semicolon on line 23, that is still part of section one. Then you move down
