

SENATOR LINDSAY: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...the need for this.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Beutler, your light is next.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Lindsay, let me ask you, well, first of all, let me just ask you right out, you have chosen to take the E & R first. Is there a particular reason for that? Would you have any objection to switching that around to last?

SENATOR LINDSAY: I don't. I thought they were most noncontroversial.

SENATOR BEUTLER: I know, the only...let me tell you, honestly, the only reason I am asking is that Senator Chambers and myself wanted to address one item on good item, and it seems like our only entry to...

SENATOR LINDSAY: Okay.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...the amendment is through the E & R amendments. So if there is no objection, I'd request that it be switched around.

SENATOR HALL: Excuse me, Senator Beutler, Senator Lindsay. The Chair would ask some indulgence after we have gone through the alphabet, is it possible to take them up in the order in which they have been presented?

SENATOR LINDSAY: It's...Mr. President, I don't have an objection to either way. I thought this would be noncontroversial. Apparently what Senator Beutler's issue is is that he wants to address something on good time, the E & R amendments are the only ones that make a good-time change, apparently germane to the amendment, if that's what I am gathering, is that...?

SENATOR BEUTLER: That's true, Senator.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Then that's...

SENATOR HALL: Senator Lindsay, then I would ask that it go to the bottom of the list, and we will start with...
