

record because I intend to make use of them and show the kind of attitude of people from that part of the state, make it clear why there are problems that...

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...students encounter who go to some of the colleges out there. And it's not funny to me at all and, Senator Cudaback, what I am saying is not addressed to you. I hope you understand that. You're entitled to offer your amendment even though part of it was not drafted in the way that you ultimately drafted it. But I'm going to turn my light on again because I do want to ask you why you added the second part of your amendment to it which dealt with this program.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Kristensen. Senator Wickersham. Senator Kristensen waives off, is that correct? Senator Kristensen, you're recognized. Senator Wickersham.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Question.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do not at this point. I do now. There are five hands. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Senator Wickersham.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: (Inaudible)...so I'd request a call of the house. I'll take call-in votes.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: There has been a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 11 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: The house is under call. Would all senators please report to the floor. Would all unauthorized personnel please leave the legislative floor. The house is under call. Senator Wickersham, did you authorize call-ins?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.
