

the Department of Corrections, wanting to have that site. Our state would be obligated to look at all sites. You have to be fair, if you open it up you have to be fair, you'll look at all of the sites and we will be at least a year before we get that done, I believe. And so the construction of the actual site will be about a year and a half, possibly two years, though I don't know if it would be that long off of our schedule. That's not what we need to do. I believe very strongly that Senator Cudaback has represented his district well. I know his good heart and good intentions. I know his flak jacket has been "holed" a little bit, but he's been held...he's held up well. I would hope that the body would join me and, Senator Cudaback, I would hope that you would join me as well in saying that you fought the good fight, that maybe we should let the juvenile system go where it's at...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...and we'll debate this again tomorrow or next...next year when we get into other areas. And, Senator Cudaback, if you'd like to have any of the last minute or so, I will yield time to you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Cudaback, you have 45 seconds.

SENATOR CUDABACK: I guess I've stated my position. And I think I'd just leave it up to the body here. I think we're all grown-ups here, I think we should act like grown-ups and I think we should make a decision based on those facts. We're not...we're not out to get anybody. I'm not after to make a name for myself. I mean I'm 56 years old or 7, I mean, I'm not trying to do any of this for a particular reason, to be a Governor, or a senator, or President of the United States. I'm here because what I do...I think what's right. I thought this was right, so I guess I'll...I think Senator Chambers taught me that. He said, stick with your convictions. This is my conviction. I appreciate Senator Kristensen and Senator Bernard-Stevens saying what could happen, and with that,...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time, Senator.

SENATOR CUDABACK: ...I guess I will cease.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Cudaback. The question before the body is the motion to reconsider the Cudaback
