

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I don't think that with five employees these services can be adequately delivered. I don't think with a man whose background is whatever Mr. Hill's background is would be able himself to have the expertise to see that these services are properly delivered. And the reason I say what I do, if he had credentials of the kind that I would like to see a person having, he wouldn't have this job because he wouldn't have been available. I don't know if anybody here knows the gentleman. Senator Landis, do you know him, Mr. Jon Hill who is head of the Juvenile Services because I was going to ask if anybody knows where he worked prior to getting this job? Oh, Senator Bernard-Stevens, you know? Here comes Senator Bernard-Stevens looking...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...like he's got the weight of the world on his shoulders.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator, you've spoken three times. There are no further lights. Senator Lindsay.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Thank you, Madam President. I would ask unanimous consent to withdraw AM2507.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I object.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: There is an objection, Senator.

SENATOR LINDSAY: I would move to withdraw AM2507.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Point of order.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Point of order, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And I'm asking because I don't know the answer. Can an amendment even with a vote of the membership be withdrawn after it has been amended?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Chambers, the portion of the amendments that are remaining that have not been amended can be withdrawn at this point because they were divided, so pursuant to Rule 7 Section 3(e), you can withdraw based on a vote of a majority of those voting. The remaining sections may be
