

this is the way he gets treated.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Lindsay, I don't get treated that badly. I did...he said I don't dress like a lawyer or conduct myself like one, but at any rate, I'm going to oppose Senator Lindsay's motion and I'm going to make reconsideration motions and I'm going to do everything else I can because I made you all a promise. I said that the rest of the session belongs to me. Maybe after I get a good night's sleep, I'll change my mind and not be so recalcitrant, to use a term that Senator Withem has introduced into our lexicon of legislative parlance. But as of now, I have to deliver on the promise that I made so Senator Lindsay may draw this particular monster from the field but others will take its place, and I assure you I will be here ready and anxious or eager to do the same thing on those that I'm doing on Senator Lindsay's.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So what difference does it make which one we consider?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator, your light is next.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, members of the Legislature, I'd like to ask Senator Lindsay a question.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Lindsay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Lindsay, other than feeling the irritation that I could detect in your voice and understanding it because your position has not been accurately reflected in terms of what's in this amendment that they call the Lindsay amendment, what will be achieved other than withdrawing the amendment? And by the way, let me say something else to help clarify the record. Some of the propositions in here are those that I asked to have included so Senator Lindsay didn't just sit down and hatch this out of his head and he made it clear to me that some of these propositions he was going to oppose. So at least give the devil his due with regard to that. I don't consider Senator Lindsay the devil. I consider him an all-around good fellow for what he tried to do because I agreed
