

oftentimes about extrinsic matters.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR LINDSAY: I don't think there's any question.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You make me think of a song I heard and I don't know it all, but it talked about you had to be a big shot, didn't you, had to open up your mouth; you had to be a big shot, didn't you, and went on like that. But it said you had to have the white hot spot light, you had to be a big shot last night, "woa, woa, woa." Have you heard that song?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Billy Joel I think.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's the way...that's the kind of discussing we're going to be doing the rest of this evening. And Senator Landis is rubbing his hands and he's ready. And I assure you all that I'm going to do just what I said and what I'm doing now is just a preview, and I will carry us...we've only got three and a half hours to go and that will take us to around midnight. So this is the last opportunity I have to speak on Senator Lindsay's amendment. I mourn his parting in this fashion. Senator Lindsay, are you going home after you withdraw your amendment? Unless you can do what?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Lindsay.

SENATOR LINDSAY: No, I'm sticking around, Senator Chambers. I'll be...if Senator Landis can't handle the questions you pose, I'll be right behind him ready to do them for you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: In the spirit, though, of being friendly and collegial, I'm going to give the one minute, part of the minute that I have back.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Seeing no further lights, Senator Lindsay to close on his motion to withdraw his amendment.

SENATOR LINDSAY: This is, as I mentioned, this is a motion to withdraw AM2507. The purpose in introducing it was solely to allow us to discuss those portions of the bill that had not yet