

conduct that is a prelude to a sexual act and say, but I meant no. So I'm not crazy and I'm not so naive that in every situation the word no is sufficient. And when I was speaking earlier, I pointed out the circumstances in which I felt saying no was sufficient.

SPEAKER WITHEM PRESIDING

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But I have..I'm going to give the other side of it too because men have been falsely accused of rape and 30 percent of the men who have had DNA tests have been found not guilty of the rape for which they were sentenced to huge amounts of time and had served humongous portions of that time and the DNA proved they could not have done it, and the prosecutors fought against letting those men out, and these men were identified by the woman as the one who did it. Ruined lives, destroyed families, so this is one of the most sensitive types of crimes that can be committed and we have to proceed cautiously no matter how upset and offended people get and I'm going to keep offering the kind of amendments that I offered.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Chambers, there are no further lights on regarding the Chambers amendment. You are recognized to close.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature. This word substitute..this amendment substitute the word...substitutes the word "bleep" for "sexual" in the appropriate line and "Hammond" for "sexual" in front of the word "organ" in the appropriate line. That's the amendment that I'm offering and I'd like you to adopt it. And I have other amendments of a similar kind that I intend to offer and discuss until either Senator Lindsay invokes cloture, until we reach midnight, or until the cows come home. I am on a roll now. See, you all got me earlier. You all ran me right down to my office to get a cup of coffee and be with my own people. I mean, as George Foreman would say or maybe Mohammed Ali, you all put a whooping on my, but, see, I don't stay whooped and I came back and said the rest of the session is mine, so this, as they used to say, today is the first day of the last...of the rest of your life. This is just the first part of the rest of the session and I'm going to deliver on the promise that I made. And let me tell you something else to make you all angry. By
