

my domain. This is my empire. I'm ruler of all that I survey. I can make you angry and you can't even do anything about it except sit there and stew in your juice like if I was boiling neck bones that I intend to put into some lima beans, Senator Hall. I don't know if you know about that, but that's the way poor people used to eat. Just do anything I want to do and you're helpless. But what I hope is that these people over here realize that all they're doing is in vain if all they're going to try to do is change some dates or we're going to spend the rest of the session on 731 (sic). But here's what they can do. They can...or, well, 371. Thank you, Senator Crosby. I transposed some numbers. He can...somebody, if he doesn't want to invoke cloture, he can put a rule up there to suspend the rules and have no more debate or amending and move the bill. I don't care because that means the bill won't be changed...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ..also.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Question before the body is the adoption of the Chambers amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 1 aye, 12 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The amendment is not adopted. We are now back to consideration of the Landis amendment. Are there further amendments, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers would move to amend. (Senator Chambers' FA306 is found on page 2552 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Chambers, on your amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, this is an amendment which is not a humorous one, but if you look on page 1 of the amendment there are several places where they strike, for example in line 6, in line 8, in line 10 and line 13, I think those are the parts, 6, 8 and 10 are the lines, you would strike the new matter and reinstate the old. The old matter says "shall mean". That is stricken under Senator Landis's amendment and the word "means" is inserted. I want to
