

SPEAKER WITHEM: It is withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. Clerk, next item.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment I have to the bill is by Senator Hall. (FA314 appears on page 2581 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Mr. President and members, the amendment that we're dealing with was passed out, and I need to apologize to the body. I did not initial it. It was an oversight on my part. It is AM2060. You just received it about 10 minutes ago on your desk and it's to LB 613. It's an amendment to the Standing Committee amendments, and because it is an amendment to the Standing Committee amendments, Mr. Clerk, I do need to make one change in the amendment, and if you can follow along on line 1 of the amendment where it says on page 5, line 10, that should be line 14 because it should be to the E & R amendments and I drafted it to the Revenue Committee amendments.

SPEAKER WITHEM: You're asking for a substitution?

SENATOR HALL: If I could so substitute, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Is there an objection to the substitution? Hearing none, Senator Hall, proceed.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Mr. President. The proposal is one that I bring on behalf of the City of Omaha but it does affect a number of other entities. It says that, and I'll just read it to you. It's a paragraph long. "In addition to the increase permitted by section (1) of this section," and that section (1) that we're talking about is the provision that allows for the change up to 4 percent in relation to the consumer price index. It says, "In addition to the increase permitted in subsection (1) of this section, a municipality or county may increase the anticipated aggregate receipts from property taxes by the amount necessary to comply with a final order, judgment, ruling, or award of the Commission on Industrial Relations upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the governing body. Such vote shall be taken at a public meeting of the governing body, a
