

be revoked or not. And I guess I'm a little surprised at your concern here, but be that as it may,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Why are you surprised?

SENATOR SCHROCK: Because the present law that governs controlled shooting area uses the words may instead of shall, and this is trying to put it back to the same way. And I'm sure if the original bill drafter had it to do over again they would have used the words may instead of shall.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, the bill drafter can't make those changes, those are policy changes. Let me ask Senator...is Senator Hudkins here?

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Hudkins, are you available for question? She's approaching her mike.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Hudkins, where the word may is changed to shall, that would be something that you had put in when you were having the bill drafted, wouldn't it? That's not something the bill drafter would do.

SENATOR HUDKINS: Senator Chambers, I'm sorry, I'm not following where you are.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, I'm on Senator Schrock's amendment, it's found on page 2436 of the Journal and it takes us to page 35 of the bill, which would be the E & R amendments. And he wants to strike the word shall and insert may in line 3 and also line 4 on page 35. He...you would have put in...you would (inaudible)...

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...shall, wouldn't you? That's not something E & R I mean the bill drafter would do.

SENATOR HUDKINS: The word may was in there, and looking at it I would say that it's...is that present language? I believe that there was an amendment on this, on General File, that changed the may to shall. And Game and Parks, upon looking at this, said that it's going to cause a lot more problems...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time. Senator Chambers, you're recognized to
