

SENATOR ROBINSON: Wouldn't this be an awful expensive way to collect the money?

SENATOR WARNER: Well, based upon that all I can argue about is...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Yeah.

SENATOR WARNER: ..is based upon the fiscal note from the department which I assume is not any...it's all that they could think of to put in there and then some maybe.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Yeah.

SENATOR WARNER: It comes out at fifty-six hundredths of one percent of what is anticipated to be collected based on the multistate tax commission's estimate of what Nebraska is losing currently by not collecting the use tax on catalog sales.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Senator Bernard-Stevens gave me a note and he said that any Dairy Queens that would be sold out of state wouldn't have a sales tax. Would that be correct? (Laugh)

SENATOR WARNER: Any Dairy Queens?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: It's a long story, Jerry.

SENATOR ROBINSON: He's just laying one on me.

SENATOR WARNER: He tells me it's a long story and it's late at night so I don't know.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Robinson. Is there any further discussion on the motion to return to Select File? Seeing none, Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Madam President and members of the Legislature, I appreciate the opportunity to explain once again what we're doing here. To me, there just absolutely is no impact on telecommunication systems. I have no idea, and I've talked to them too, of what it is they think, but it absolutely in no way does it impact them certainly in terms of legislation. If
