

use of a vehicle to run down a police cruiser or officer.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So you mean in that provision of the bill as it's written, they have recklessly and intentionally in the same provision.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's not constitutional.

SENATOR LINDSAY: It might not be but it's...it's certainly not, as I think I suggested, certainly not artfully drafted and that's why the amendment is up to strike that portion.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Your amendment would improve this atrocity, known as LB 371.

SENATOR LINDSAY: My amendment would improve LB 371, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: By what right do you do such a thing?

SENATOR LINDSAY: To improve LB 371?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Well, I think, as you, I'm elected to this body to file amendments or to file motions to reconsider or whatever we do to push our particular viewpoints.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But didn't you have the opportunity to do this in committee when I was being so critical of the bill?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Senator Chambers, unlike...unlike you, I'm capable of mistakes, and I just simply didn't catch that mistake.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laughter.) I think my time is up on this one. Is it, Madam President?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: It's close, Senator Chambers, but your light is next.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then I will continue because this is very
