

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laughter) That was very abrupt. Have you determined at what point you are going to invoke cloture?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How long after we take this vote are you going to invoke cloture?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Just before you get your next motion up.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laughter) So you know what I'm plotting. Have you got your cloture motion up there?

SENATOR LINDSAY: I've got a fair idea.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Have you got your cloture motion up there?

SENATOR LINDSAY: I do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh well, okay. I made Senator Lindsay do that. I made him get his cloture motion up there. He is kind of stumbling and fumbling around here. You know that when I decide I'm going to knock off a target, I'm ready to do it. I wanted to show that collectively I own you, and individually I own you, but it is not so bad. Senator Lindsay is a little...a lot younger than I am. Since cloture is a motion that allow for no discussion, no debate, I'll be the last voice you hear before Senator Lindsay invokes cloture, and he cannot debate the motion. What you're going to do, what you're going to do, and I'll make Senator Hall a wager, Senator Hall, I will put up a penny against your $10 on this one. You all had better, when...we're going to once, either Senator Lindsay or I will ask for a call of the house, and we're going to ask for a roll call vote, but we're going to have you brought in like they say bringing in the sheaves. First of all we are going to make you get in this room and sit down in your chair. (Laughter) That's what we are going to do first. We are going to order you back into this Chamber and make you sit down. Then we are going to make you punch the green button and check in. Then you are going to have to call our your vote in favor...in favor of the Lindsay amendment to the Landis amendment. Then after that has been done, you have got to give a favorable vote for the Landis amendment to attach it to the bill. Then even those who have misgivings have got to vote to advance the bill. We all know that. Who in here is surprised at what has happened here?
