

Nobody. And now you've suffered through it, you get your scout ribbon or badge or whatever you get for being good, because most of you were pretty good this morning, but I find this to have been one of the most delightful parts of the session, and I guess I have to thank the Governor, Senator Withem, Senator Lindsay, and I am not going to do like they do during those awards and thank everybody that I ever knew, but I think those big three must be given some thanks for me having the opportunity to spend this time with you this morning. I almost feel like singing a bar or two of Auld Lang Syne, but Senator Crosby said that I can't sing, and she kind of hurt my feelings when she said that, so I won't be singing this morning. But that's what you are going to have to do. Madam President, how much time do I have left?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: You have one min...one and a half minutes, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I started to ask for a call of the house while I am on my close, but I am not going to do it, and in order to beat Senator Lindsay to the punch, I am going to ask for a call of the house on my motion, and for the first time this session, you can vote against going under call. That's the only way you can defeat me is by voting against a call of the house, and I will have made you do something that you haven't done any other time in the session. Nobody what you do, you play into my hand. Senator Lindsay, you did a masterful job...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...in the way that you handled this. There sits the master parliamentarian, Senator Lindsay not me. And I am not humble, and I believe in taking my credit, but Senator Lindsay knew what he was doing when he handled this matter in this way. So before people start pointing the finger at Senator Lindsay and condemning the way he handles a bill, who else could have gotten a bill back onto the agenda in this fashion and handled it in this fashion and made you vote for his entire amendment. You have got to give the youngster his credit. Madam President, now I will ask for a call of the house, then I want a roll call vote on my motion.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: There has been a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye, all those opposed vote nay. Please record.
