

Thursday morning. And I don't know...I don't know where we're headed.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How much time was there between when we got 391 back, with the vetoes, and when we got the other bill with the university vetoes? How many days between the two, if you remember?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Ah...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, how many days have passed since that other bill with the university vetoes came down?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That...you mean 392,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...when was it vetoed?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yeah.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I think it was...I looked it up, it was May 29th, that would be Tuesday.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So there's been time for the committee to have met to consider what they're going to do about the university?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: We have met once, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is it that they just don't want to tell us?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: We have not decided.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, and I did say I'd turn my light on again, but maybe you'll see the direction that I'm going in. At this point I don't want to ask you a question that you won't be able to answer because my time will run out on me.

PRESIDENT ROBAK Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Brown.

SENATOR BROWN: Madam President, members of the body, much has been made about the ranking of the Beatrice cottages in the
