

going to vote yes when I like the university because I don't want to, at the same time, go for the developmentally disabled. This is a hypothetical. If each stands alone then if there are enough votes to override for the university, the university will get its way. If there are enough for the other, it will get its way. I think we will make a very serious error to allow our rules to be interpreted in this manner that will prevent us from carefully and in a surgical manner analyzing each item that has been overridden by the Governor and making a separate, informed decision on that particular item. If the package is made, it's all or nothing. If you don't get your item in with the Appropriations Committee package, you can forget it, you don't have a chance. So that is a double obstacle and a double reason for having the division of the question. Madam President,...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...since we're not under call...we're not on Final Reading, I would ask for a call of the house and I would ask for...I will start with a machine vote.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: There's been a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 24 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The house is under call. Will senators please return to their seats. Will all unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. The house is under call. Senators, please check in. Senator Engel, Senator Bromm, Senator Witek, Senator Janssen, Senator Landis, Senator Pirsch, Senator Brown, Senator Beutler and Senator Wickersham. We're waiting for Senator Pirsch. We're waiting for Senator Pirsch. Senator Chambers, we're unable to find Senator Pirsch.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: A question then of the Chair.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Does Senator Pirsch count as one of the people who would be here for determining the number of votes? Oh, she is here, so...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The answer would have been, yes, Senator. The
