

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Not at this point, thank you.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Senator Chambers, I will yield you some time so you may pursue the areas that you were doing.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Bernard-Stevens, and, Senator Wehrbein, I want to go back to Voc Rehab because on the matter of probation there are comments that I would make that I don't need to ask you questions about in order to prepare the way. Was there any determination made by anybody and such information given to the committee that will tell us how many people will not be served as a result of this money being cut from the budget?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I do not know the exact amount. I thought I did but I do not know what the waiting list is.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, and we'll have time again to go into some of these...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: All right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...but I'm just asking for the information you might have.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I'll have staff try to look that up if they can find it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Now if we would turn to the next page to the Department of Social Services, Program 347 on domestic violence.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Two hundred and ninety two thousand dollars was removed by the Governor and the committee did not include this in their package.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That is right. You want an answer on...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Why...yes, why was that not included?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I'd have to read the Governor's veto on that, but there is a comment in a paragraph in that veto that said
