

Thank you.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Schimek. Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Madam President, members, very briefly, I will rise, I am nit picking, Senator Chambers, but I...the "the", you used the "the" and I want to be clear, it is the last "the" in the sentence and not the "to" and I assume it's because it's capitalized it is clear. I just wanted to be clear because when I first read that I thought you let us just hanging out there, but I wanted to be clear. I, too, rise to oppose the amendment because I think even in our efforts to try, we are still trying to do what we...what we think is right and this is an attempt to get a balance in. I guess we, as humans, aren't perfect but I think we have to try, and I'm...I want to keep trying to do what I think should be done, and in this case, we need a balance on the commission. It ought to be in statute and there ought to be some guidelines. Therefore. I oppose the amendment.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President and members of the Legislature, usually, I don't have this much fun till the end of the session, but it gives us an idea of what's going to happen. You have a chance to see whether I can carry on like this for an entire session rather than just the last few days when everybody is exhausted. But did you hear what all my opponents said. They agreed with me. The language they used cannot be complied with. I didn't put "balance" in the bill, did I? The geniuses who drafted the bill put "balance" in it. That's why I say we are dealing with sheer unmitigated, unadulterated stupidity, and you are mad at me because I call it what it is. Then you should take the word "balance" out of it. You all put the word "balance" in it. Then you immediately stand up; Senator Warner stood up and said with beginning math you know that you can't balance a commission if there are seven people. It all depends on how you define balance. That's where you make a determination. But if you cannot balance a commission with seven people and a knowledge of beginning math lets you know that, why did Senator Warner put it in his bill? Why do you all provoke me in this manner? Then you get angry when I pay attention and take seriously what you did. If you are just jesting, if you, in fact and indeed, are running a hoax, a sham,
