

concept of capitalism where the rich people use their money, they make money with the money, the capital is that from which they make money. Unfortunately human beings have become a form of capital in this society, but aside from that, they talk about creating jobs through allowing capitalists to behave in any way they want to. And when they are talking about creating jobs, they don't say, create jobs for everybody except homosexuals. What I am going to do, and I might do it before this session is over because there is time, is draft a bill legalizing same sex marriages to show you how really uncontroversial this that I'm talking about is. All I am talking about is the right for a person to get a job.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Why should anybody be prevented from obtaining a job. I said that I would discuss this issue every opportunity that I have during this session. I have discussed it three times within a two-day period. I'm going to tell you what I could do. I could withdraw this amendment and offer it again, but I am not going to do that. I am going to get a vote, I'm going to vote on the prevailing side, or not voting, then I'm going to reconsider, because I am want to keep bringing this up, and bringing it up, and bringing it up, and you can thank the Governor for bringing 886 and giving me the opportunity. I will ask for a call of the house, and for new members, you don't have to vote to give it to me, but you know, suit yourself.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you Senator Chambers. There has been a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The house is under call. Will senators please return their seats. Will all unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. The house is under call. Senators, please check in. Senator Fisher, Senator Engel, Senator Bromm, Senator Avery, Senator Vrtiska, Senator Avery, Senator Brown, Senator Hartnett, Senator Hilgert, and Senator Beutler. Senator Withem would like to announce that there are a group of nurses from districts around Nebraska present in the balcony. Will you all stand and be recognized please. Welcome to the Legislature. I would also like to announce that I have an intern visiting the
