mean and mean what we say.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Since you all are the ones putting these words in the rules, I'm going to have to presume that they mean what they say and they're saying what you mean. And when I begin to apply these rules I don't expect to hear any whining, whimpering or anger expressed simply because I am making use of what you insisted on adopting over my objection. Senator Wickersham is absolutely correct. If you vote this amendment down, that I'm offering, it doesn't hurt me at all. When I...should I attempt to raise a bill in this manner, by the way, which I haven't tried to do that I can recall, not where there was a serious attempt. I've tried to pull bills out of committee. I'll try to do it anyway.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I will ask for a call of the house and a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. There's been a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 16 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The house is under call. Will senators please return to their seats. Will all unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. The house is under call. Will senators please check in. Senator Schellpeper, Senator Dierks, Senator Coordsen, Senator Warner, Senator Kristensen, Senator Jones. Senator Landis, Senator Robinson, Senator Matzke, Senator Robak, Senator Brown. Senator Wesely, Senator Lindsay. Senator Coordsen, Senator Jones, Senator Pirsch, Senator Lindsay, Senator Wesely. We're waiting for Senator Jones and Senator Pirsch. While we are waiting. Senator Joyce Hillman, of Gering, has been named Citizen of the Year by the Scottsbluff Star Herald. The newspaper saluted Senator Hillman for her dedication to the citizens of western Nebraska for the 32 years she's lived in western Nebraska. Congratulations, Senator Hillman. Senator Jones and Senator Pirsch. The question before the body is the adoption of the Chambers amendment to the fourth
