

January 23, 1996 LB 592

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You don't know what all is in this amendment, do you.

SENATOR AVERY: Not every exact word.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Most of it you don't know, isn't that correct?

SENATOR AVERY: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you feel that you are alone in that position?

SENATOR AVERY: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Senator Schimek, my dear friend Senator Schimek. The same question of you. Do you think it should be mandatory that the licenses is reinstated when a person comes into compliance? Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think it should be mandatory when a person comes into compliance with the support order that his or her license is reinstated?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, probably.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So the word instead of "may" should have been "shall". I think we would probably agree. Were you aware that what I am mentioning here is in the amendment that you voted for?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I hadn't thought about it Senator Chambers but I think you are probably right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you know most of what is in this amendment? Have you read the amendment through?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Alright. On this definition on the front page of child support, do you think that the definition is adequate when it says child support means support for one or