

lost because he or she didn't pay child support. If it was already taken, it couldn't be taken away again by means as a means of punishment, it is already gone. That "may" should be "shall" because we are looking at all of this in the context of what this bill is attempting to do. So, I will continue to work on this bill. One of the things I would like to do, since you have adopted this amendment, and I needed some time to draft it is change that definition of child support and make it more in line with what a legal obligation ought to be, not have a vague general concept.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Beutler sometimes jumps to conclusions. He thinks he knows why I do what I do. The reason I offered the reconsideration motion in addition to having the opportunity to show that people voted for the amendment and don't know what's in it, and I didn't have to ask the questions to know that. I know you all don't know what's in it. I know you. I looked around the Chamber when the amendment was handed out and I didn't see heads down and pages turning and marks being made in the margin, and I didn't hear questions being asked which ought to be asked if this is being taken seriously. There are things in it about which Senator Bromm has questions. The creation of this cause of action, it says nothing...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh you said time?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Yes, Senator. Thank you Senator Witek, your light is next, followed by Senator Chambers.

SENATOR WITEK: Plebeian, a common person. You know it is a great experience being here and learning all of these new things. I guess what I wanted to say is be careful what you want. That is what my dad used to say because you just might get it. Well you got it people. You just voted for it and as Senator Chambers has pointed out I doubt most of you even know what you have just voted for. And I still can not believe these hard core conservative who voted for your amendment Senator Beutler. I don't think there is to many people who would argue on this floor that I am a conservative Republican and this has nothing to do with the Governor wanting this bill so badly.
