

February 1, 1996 LB 964

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, and then the postmark could be what we would use to reckon when a person had actually placed it out of his or her custody and put it in the pipeline to get to the commissioner or the clerk, wherever it would be sent.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Right, it could.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, thank you, Senator Dangerfield. I think as well as you answered those questions, you're going to get your real name back before this discussion is over. And because there's such a small amount of time left, I haven't had a chance to comment on Senator Schimek's amendment, but I did want to get those issues out of the way first. So I'll put my light on again, then I may have a question or two I'd like to ask Senator Schimek.

SPEAKER WITHEN: Thank you, Senator Chambers. I'd like to pause one second to recognize a couple of guests of the Legislature. They are from the Midwestern office of the Council of State Governments. I think most of us utilize the services of the Council of State Government. They're making their annual trip here to visit with senators in regard to making their services more meaningful to us, so I'd...not only would I like to introduce them, but I'd like to suggest that senators go over and say a word or two to, to these folks. They're under the north balcony. I'd like to have them stand. We have Laura Foster, the policy analyst. Laura, would you like to wave and let people know who you are. And Paul Cohan, the publications manager. Welcome here to the Nebraska Legislature. On the Schimek amendment, Senator Beutler. Senator Beutler has called the question. Do I see five hands? Do I see five hands? I believe I do. Yes, I see sufficient seconds. The question before the body is, shall debate now cease? All of those in favor of ceasing debate vote aye, those opposed vote nay. The question before the body is, shall debate now cease on the Schimek amendment? Have you all voted who choose to vote? Record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 25 ayes, 2 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEN: Senator Schimek, to close on your amendment.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, Madam...Mr. President and members of the
