

portrayed, and we know that Charlton Heston gives the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so if what he presented was the truth, there is no way that could have happened. But, anyway, the vote on this bracket motion will rid us of this blight. I'm prepared to use this LR 43CA to get myself in condition for some of these other bad bills that are going to come before us like abortion and some of those that will really require me to get down and dirty, if you know what I mean, and really...

SENATOR CROSBY: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...fight against chem. This is like spring training or preseason. Senator Schellpeper is not really driving us on this measure because he knows that it is lost. I listened to him this morning. The wind has gone out of him, completely gone out of him. He's like that boat in the rhyme of The Ancient Mariner. He is sitting dead in the water, not a breeze anywhere. The sails are not billowing. The...I won't describe them, the crew members have deserted the ship, they see the writing on the wall, or they've seen the pebbles splash in the water, and I think by the time it's over, the Bismarck will be sunk this morning. And in honor of that, I raise my cup of coffee, because what is more appropriate than coffee and bismarcks.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Jones, on the bracket motion.

SENATOR JONES: Madam President and members of the body, I stand in support of the bracket motion this morning, and I think if the people think that gambling is right in this state, they will vote for LR 43CA, and if they think it's wrong, they'll vote against it. I think that's the way it should be because you keep saying that all we are doing is putting it on the ballot for people to vote on it. I'd like to make a suggestion. We've got LR 93CA sitting in the wings in the Revenue Committee. I'd like to put that on the ballot and just amend it to say, do you want to get rid of property tax or not, and see how that would go. I think that would be a good thing to put on the ballot, and I think it would get...I think it would pass. And so, anyway, another thing I want to talk a little bit about, I've got Rosebud Casino just about eight miles from my district's border in Valentine, and since that went in, legally they
