

Former quarterback Art Schlichter will be allowed to satisfy a two-year sentence from an Ohio court at the same time he is in prison on other federal convictions. It won't happen in Nebraska, will it? No, never, because I think our quarterbacks are probably in better shape than Art Schlichter was. Just think about it, ruined his life, hocked his...hocked his wife's wedding ring so he could have more money. Think about that. Coffee shop Saturday morning, a friend of mine, his name is Joe, if you want to know who he is I'll give you a full name, said he was over at Bluffs Run the other day, and he said he was standing there by a slot machine, there was a lady that had a little...I guess it's a little can or something, she had dollar chips. Joe said to the lady, he says, easy to make money in America. She says, she had about 10 or 11 chips left, says that is the last of $800, the last of $800. If you want it verified, I'll give you the person's name. I will give you the person's name. Yesterday I went to an affair and we were sitting by a fellow up in Northwest Nebraska, and another senator was there, and we were talking about gambling. He said, well, you know I had a cattle buyer, a pretty good cattle buyer, he says, you know, and he got into the gambling business. Finally, he kept...he didn't come around as much, and it kept going on and on. He says, do you know what happened? He was indicted for fraud because he was using money of the people that he was selling cattle for, it's because of his gambling habit. The other night on CNN they were interviewing a governor, and it wasn't Governor Ben Nelson. He says, how would you like to be remembered when you are out of office? He says, I would like to be remembered as a person who helped to provide a positive environment for parents to raise their children. Boy, this would really help that environment, wouldn't it, having casinos all over? And if you think we are just going to have them spotted, if this passes, you think we are going to have them spotted? Look at...look at the list of...I don't know what I did with it, list of...look at the list of lobbyists to who they represent; International Gameco, Big Red Keno. Oh, they want to protect, they want to protect keno. Don't kid yourself. They'd love to have slot machines, they'd love to have slot machines in every Big Red Keno place in the state of Nebraska. Platte County Agricultural Society, Atokad, so the race track people are getting their...Douglas Racing.

SENATOR CROSBY: One minute.
