

opponents. There will be no comparison, so is it a fair election? When candidates do that, that's gives us a bad feeling in our stomach, but when it's an issue,...

SENATOR CROSBY: Time.

SENATOR BROMM: ...it's a different matter and it's not...it cannot be a fair election. I have a problem with that as well. Thank you.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Bromm. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, members of the Legislature, is Senator Schmitt on the floor?

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Schmitt.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, I would like to yield my time to Senator Schmitt.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Schmitt.

SENATOR SCHMITT: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Madam President and members, I wasn't going to talk on this bill, but I sit back here and I listened to all the conversation, and I decided I would. I think right now, I think you've got Jesse and the sheriff on the same side of an issue, and we'll let you figure out who Jesse and the sheriff are, but I want to relate back to several years ago, and there is a lot of people in this body wasn't here at that time. The mandatory seat belts were an issue. They were voted on by the general public. It was voted out. The Legislature came back and voted them back in. So did the legislative body listen to the voting people? I don't think so. Another thing I heard at that time was the amount of dollars we are going to save in accidents because of this. I ask you, can any of you here relate that your insurance premiums went down? What happened to all the money that we saved? People right now, if they want to gamble, you can get a round-trip airfare ticket to Las Vegas for less than $100. So I think if the people really want to, that can afford it, can fly out there if they really want to gamble. Another thing I guess that I would like to know, and I haven't heard it discussed at all on this floor that I can recall, unless I missed something, how many dollars is the state going to get if we expand this
