

February 7, 1996 LB 1141

the state, what they are doing is they are contracting out with firms that will come in and they will do a case management of all the cases, but they'll also use the dollars that we provide for them through this bill and through the 2 million that we've provided elsewhere in other appropriations last year, they will use those dollars so that if a child or family needs counseling, if they need mental health treatment, if they need drug treatment, if they need other types of treatment as the intake evaluation would give, that those dollars then would flow through local providers, the people in the local areas,...

SENATOR PIRSCH: Right.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...where they cannot do that now.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Where they cannot do that now?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Correct, because most of the families do not have dollars to spend,...

SENATOR COORDSEN: One minute.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...so the only way that they were able to get services in most of the area is by...if they were...only if they were Medicaid qualified. Otherwise, there simply...they didn't have any money to pay for the services.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Well, one of the mandates to the Office of Juvenile Services now is to coordinate community-based services for juveniles and their families. What we are establishing then with your bill is that comprehensive array, which, quite frankly, I don't have a definition of, of those same community-based services again for juveniles and their families across the state, and we put a minimum of eight geographic sites.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Time. Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Question.

SENATOR COORDSEN: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I see five, six, seven hands. The question is, shall we cease debate? Have you all voted that care to vote? The question is ceasing debate. Yes, Senator Bernard-Stevens.
