SENATOR ROBINSON: We might have an earthquake, too.

SPEAKER WITHEM: We could have that. I will certainly endeavor to see that we, after this bill gets amended, that we do. And if we can accommodate that request, I certainly will. I'm not going to give an iron-clad promise though.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay. Senator Beutler made a comment, I'm sure he was referring to me, that I wasn't talking to the point. Well, that's what... You know my good friend, Senator Chambers, you know sometimes I don't think he talks to the point. And I know my good...where's he at. Oh, I know he doesn't sometimes. But I guess that's...I guess that's our privilege on the floor, isn't it? I don't know who corrects us, Senator Beutler. Put... (Laughter) I have a question for Senator Bohlke. Senator Bohlke, I have a question.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Senator Bohlke, would you respond to a question, please?

SENATOR BOHLKE: Most certainly.

SENATOR ROBINSON: If you could do it just the way you wanted to, what kind of a school system would you have in the state of Nebraska?

SENATOR BOHLKE: One that offers a quality education to every student in the state.

SENATOR ROBINSON: How large a schools?

SENATOR BOHLKE: You know, Senator Robinson, you've sat on...I've sat on a school board, people have tried to determine that, no one's ever been able to determine what the ideal size...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay, how about towns of 1,100? I have about five of them, I just curious.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Pardon? What about towns?

SENATOR ROBINSON: Towns of 1,100, you think they ought to have schools?
