deal of money into the coffers of the county because there isn't that much money there, there's not that much land there. So my greatest concern is the relief that would come about because of more money to be distributed to the schools across the state. And I guess you have indicated in your discussion here that that would probably, in fact, happen. So...

SENATOR CROSBY: One minute.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...so with that discussion, I guess...the only other thing, I wanted to ask Senator Withem a question if he'd answer.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Withem.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Senator Withem, you indicated in your, the amendment that you have printed in the Journal that this would take an action, a subsequent action by the Legislature at a later time after the details of the sale and so forth were handed out. Is that correct?

SPEAKER WITHEM: That's what the amendment would do, yes.

SENATOR VRTISKA: And that would be, for example, like if the process is set out that would be like in the next year's session? Or would it be a later...

SPEAKER WITHEM: I believe so. I believe so, is that correct?

SENATOR VRTISKA: Well, I guess the point I'm getting to is if we're actually going to do something like this, land is a good, seemed to be some of it selling pretty well now, I'd hate to see this drag out too long and not, you know, get into a time when maybe when land values begin to...

SENATOR CROSBY: Time.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...drop again.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Be happy to work with you on that point.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Thank you. Thank you, Madam President.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Vrtiska. Senator Elmer, on
