SENATOR ROBINSON: I can't believe you would confess that you're a gambler, the way you stood up the other day.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Bud Robinson, I have always spoken against the stupid gambling that some people want to foist on the public, such as lotteries, horse racing, bingo, and all these other things. I have always shown you...

SENATOR ROBINSON: And I'm proud of you, because you...

SENATOR WILL: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...where sports betting is on a different footing.

SENATOR ROBINSON: I'm proud of you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I've always shown it to you.

SENATOR ROBINSON: What's on a different footing?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Sports betting. The Governor believes in it.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Well, (inaudible) different footing.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: The Governor bets!

SENATOR ROBINSON: That is not a different footing.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: The Governor of all the states... Yes, it is because you have a 50-50 chance of winning from the start, 50-50 and you don't have...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Well, what do you mean 50-50?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...those odds, you don't have odds that good on the stock market.

SENATOR ROBINSON: You get...you bet on points.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Senator, Senator Bud Robinson,...

SENATOR ROBINSON: I hope you enjoyed my time, thank you.
