

would make it very clear and would repeal that portion of it, would you have any objections to that?

SENATOR WESELY: I would only ask for a chance to clarify the reasons they have not proposed it themselves.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: I suspect they just didn't think about it at that point, but we'll see.

SENATOR WESELY: I don't know about that.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Yeah.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Time.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Senator Wesely, thank you.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Senator Maurstad.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Thank you, Mr. President. If Senator Wesely would yield to another question.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Senator Wesely, would you respond, please.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Senator, just so you're aware that a few of us are in fact listening to what your comments are. Did I understand you to indicate that you think that all of the funds are going to go through the new finance department?

SENATOR WESELY: Not necessarily. I think we were talking about an A bill scenario....

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Okay, and so...

SENATOR WESELY: ...a specific proposal.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: ...clarify for me what you were...in what situation would you see all the funds would go to the finance arm and then be disbursed out? Just in those bills that would go through the Legislature that...

SENATOR WESELY: Well, we were talking about a specific initiative that was being brought up with an A bill on it. And I was suggesting, rather than trying to decide how to parcel it
