

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Engel, have you exceeded the speed limit since you've been a member of the Legislature?

SENATOR ENGEL: Senator Chambers, I certainly have.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And don't you think if we'd all be honest we all have done it?

SENATOR ENGEL: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. That's the only point I'm making, so, Senator Klein, if there was a God in Heaven who'd strike people dead for telling an untruth, you'd be ashes right now. But at any rate, I guess my time is just about out, so I won't be able to finish the thought, so I'll stop here.

SENATOR WILL: With that, Senator Chambers, that is time. Before proceeding to the next speaker, Senator Lindsay would like to announce some guests of his in the north balcony. There are 40 students from Saitama, Japan, who are attending Creighton University's Intensive English Institute. Would you please rise and be recognized by the Legislature. Senator Schellpeper.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Call the question.

SENATOR WILL: Senator Schellpeper has called the question. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. We are voting on ceasing debate on the Engel amendment to the committee amendments. Have you all voted? Have you all voted on ceasing debate? Senator Schellpeper.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: A call of the house.

SENATOR WILL: A call of the house has been requested. The question is, shall the house come under call? All those in favor vote yes, opposed no. Mr. Clerk, please record.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 17 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.

SENATOR WILL: The house is under call. All members please take their seats and record your presence. The house is under call. All unexcused members, please report to the Chamber, take your
