

state employee?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes, it's in independent agency.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Does that person get a reason...a decent salary or does he or she only receive mileage when going from wherever they come from before they go to work and when they go back to wherever they go when they leave work?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That, that individual is paid several times, a multiple of our salary, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And all that person would have had to do is pass a piece of paper to somebody.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And didn't do that.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That's correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So as a result, Senator Wehrbein and I are at loggerheads this morning.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Well, I don't think you're at loggerheads, Senator. We're having a discussion that I think is pertinent to the body. I'm sure you've all received a copy of the report from the Performance Evaluation Committee.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, I don't mean on the merits, but I objected to his being allowed to substitute his, his amendment. That puts he and...him and me at loggerheads because of Mr. or Ms. PERB.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Well,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...Senator, I am not sure why you're engaging in a discussion about which fiscal year. The enlightening portion that I think for the body is that we have had a problem in the administration of the pension plans. I firmly hope that with actions that the Legislature will take later this year, there's a bill on General File or Final
