

SENATOR HARTNETT: You go to a city clerk or to a designated county official, you have to have a medical certificate with you to show that you're handicapped. They then...now, then they mail the information in to the Department of Motor Vehicles. And with this bill the Department of Motor Vehicles will send you your handicap sticker.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: And then once you have it you can always...you just renew it.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah, yeah.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: I didn't know how you did it. I knew there's...I see people having it and I notice they get out of a car and they walk and I didn't know how they get the handicap.

SENATOR HARTNETT: It could be the heart, we're adding the heart condition this year.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Okay. So there's a lot of things that come into play into handicap parking.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Okay, thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Mr. Speaker, how much time on the bill?

SPEAKER WITHEM: The bill, time will have expired when the clock hits at 5:54, I'm not that quick at math so you can calculate it.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you very much. And being on the Appropriations Committee, I can't calculate it either. But, Senator Hartnett, all I was going to do is, when your amendment came up that had this seven different points, I think the cat can be now let out of the bag that Senator Hartnett graduated with honors from a course, I believe it's probably at a community college, because they do some good work, on the "Senator Wesely School of How to Combine Seven or More Things
