

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...that building has to be built. Right?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: No, I'd...truthfully if there was something come up a year from now and we were debating this and there was something indicated, there was a major change, I will qualify it and use the word major change, I would be willing to take a second look, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, just so I'm clear that this is not to be a monument to Senator Wehrbein, his building.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I thought I took care of that early on. I do not feel comfortable asking for more brick and mortar or more money, and you ought to know that. I just feel it's a responsibility that we have to face.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laughter.) But as a monument, sometimes a person will hedge a little. I am just having a little fun now.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: (Laughter.) Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Maurstad.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Mr. Speaker, I'd call the question.

SPEAKER WITHEM: All of those...do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate now cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. The question before the body is, shall debate cease? Record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, to cease debate.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Lindsay, you are recognized to close.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members. I do want to take...Mr. Speaker, I...I guess I am going to ask for a call...a call of the house now, then I will continue to close, but just to get that started because I know we're probably going to need it.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The question before the body is, shall the
