

late but it's not that late. This is a little ridiculous, this one. You know I urge you to dispatch this quicker, sooner the better. I remember back when they did have some intangible tax. It was very negative on our state. It caused people to move money, considerable different places. But this is ridiculous. We're getting taxed enough. I don't think we're talking about taxes, taxing more. And the people that are eligible for this, I think they have no problem with it. If we need some more tax dollars, let's do it the right way. But this is definitely not the right way and I urge you to vote no. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Witek.

SENATOR WITEK: Question.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate now cease? All of those in favor of ceasing debate vote aye, all opposed vote nay. The question before the body is, shall debate cease? Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 2 nays to cease debate.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Debate is ceased. Senator Chambers, you're recognized to close.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, I feel chastened this evening. After listening to the fervent appeal of Senator Jensen, who pleaded guilty to the nickname of Money Bags. After listening to the cry, the heart wrenching cry of Mr. Big Bucks back there, I feel very guilty of what I am suggesting, about what I'm suggesting. That we should dare consider taxing this type of income, so that these very rich people will have to pay their fair share. I think it is a dastardly thing that I'm suggesting. But this bill will come up again on Select File, and it'll come up at a time when it's not so late in the evening and there might be more people here. There will be an opportunity to look at the issue. So what I intend to do at this point is to withdraw this amendment and I would like to refile it for Select File, Mr. Clerk, if I can do it in that manner, so it will follow the bill. That's what I will do. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Question before the body is, shall the Chambers
