

the property tax and all of those issues that could be up for ballot and ask yourself, is this what you want to do on the election side at this point in time? I'm scared enough on the property tax side, I don't want to have worries on the election side. People are comfortable the way it is now on the election side, they may be comfortable with the new change, but I don't want to add uncertainly on top of uncertainty. I don't think that's a wise time to do both, and with that, I would urge the support of the motion.

SPEAKER WITHEM: You've heard the motion. The question before the body is, shall LB 964 stand indefinitely postponed?. All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 4 ayes, 27 nays, on the motion to indefinitely postpone, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The bill is not indefinitely postponed. Anything further on the bill?

ASSISTANT CLERK: I have nothing further on the bill.

SPEAKER WITHEM: For discussion on the motion to advance, Senator Bernard-Stevens. I understand there is a motion.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: If there is an amendment pending, I'll yield to that amendment.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Maurstad would move to amend.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Maurstad.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Thank you, Mr. President. This amendment would deal with page 5, line 4 and what it would address is what Senator Bernard-Stevens was just talking about in that it would narrow the scope of the potential elections that this would apply to. Section 4 talks about a political subdivision may, by resolution of the governing board of the subdivision, hold a special election by mail as provided in Section 5 of this act under the following conditions. And subsection (4) of that now
