LB 1044, 1059

SENATOR CROSBY: I read through all of this again, I want to be sure I'm understanding what we're talking about.

SENATOR WESELY: Right.

SENATOR CROSBY: So the state has to come up with $20 million.

SENATOR WESELY: That's right.

SENATOR CROSBY: I was on my way over to ask, and you can tell me, somebody, how much does one penny, I should write it on my cup, one penny sales tax bring in, Senator Warner? One penny sales tax.

SENATOR WILL: Senator Warner.

SENATOR CROSBY: How much?

SENATOR WARNER: Hundred and thirty-five, I think, is the correct number.

SENATOR CROSBY: A hundred...I know it's a...

SENATOR WARNER: It's in that vicinity,...

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, my point about...

SENATOR WARNER: ...125,...

SENATOR CROSBY: ...and I've looked at it...

SENATOR WARNER: ...125.

SENATOR CROSBY: A hundred and twenty-five million? One oh five. Well, it's a hundred, it's more than $100 million that one penny of sales tax brings in. But what we're talking about, and thank you, Senator Wesely, I wanted to be sure I understand the numbers on here and where they're going to come from and so on. But LB 1044 hasn't even had a...it is going to come on Final Reading and we're going to read it and pass it, I'm sure. It hasn't even had a chance to breathe. And I...so I want you to know why I'm going to vote against this. I feel it's overkill right now. I think we're, we're biting off too many things in one big chunk. And that's kind of an old whatever,
