

friend either so that means that they intend to be here. There are things that make these people want to live in Nebraska. They talk about the slow pace at which things move, all these other things that they give as reasons for wanting to be in Nebraska. I don't believe we have to pass this bill to get Union Pacific to do whatever it is they're going to do. By their being the kind of company they are, I'm sure they have looked beyond the end of this legislative session, and I'm sure their plans are not contingent upon what we do in this session. There are too many things that they have to be concerned with. They're not like some mom and pop store. So we don't have to roll over this time. We don't have to knuckle under. I'm going to vote against the advancement of this bill. I hope others will do the same especially my rural colleagues, but you all won't. They got you, too. It's late. The easy thing is to vote so you can get on out of here and go someplace else and do something else. But remember if we don't vote to advance the bill you can still get on out of here and go someplace else and do something else, but you will have done something on behalf of the public.

SENATOR WILL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Brashear, you're recognized to close on the advancement of LB 1368.
