

Appropriations Committee is, as Senator Withem said, doesn't have the right to speak for the Legislature in its absence, only the Executive Board does. But this is the relationship that I foresaw, that we will have a firm understanding. And obviously if we knock heads, that may be something more serious. But at this point we're all in agreement that we do not want to expand this and spend more money than needs to be done.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WILL: Thank you, Senator Hartnett. Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Mr. Speaker, members, I guess I'm a little slow here. Maybe I've already jumped into too many empty swimming pools, like Senator Robinson is going to. I don't know, but I feel like I'm a little slow. I'm still on the last amendment, I'm still on the amendment of Senator Lindsay and Senator Wehrbein and Senator Wickersham. The first word in the amendment says "until", "until". And I wonder what happens after the word "until". I'd like to ask somebody, but I really don't know who to ask in the body, who may know the answer to this question? I don't see Senator Lindsay here. But is Senator Wickersham here or Senator Withem?

SENATOR WILL: Senator Wickersham is in.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Wickersham. Senator Wickersham, on the last amendment we passed, and this may amend how I'm going to vote on this...Senator Bromm's issue here. But what happens after the "until"? It says "until" such has happened, does that money go back after the date is completed, the change date is completed?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay, Senator, I'm sorry to give you those blank looks.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yeah, that's fine.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: It was taking me a little while to get oriented.

SENATOR CUDABACK: I do that all the time myself.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: It may be normal, you know, but at any
