

waste from any contiguous state. Then how's Nebraska going to say you cannot put that waste here if there's a federal law that says it shall be put there? And I believe that Congress could enact such a law. They could...it's something in the way of exercising the police powers of Congress. I believe there should be a lot of thought given. And while we're trying to find our way, we should adopt Senator Landis' amendment and protect the state and the people. If these states are serious, let them do what they need to do. But even with that being done, we don't know what Congress is going to do and we cannot compel Congress to do anything. And there's a volatile situation in Congress right now. So I'm in strong support...

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...of Senator Landis' amendment.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Abboud. Senator Abboud, are you in the Chamber? I do not see Senator Abboud. Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Call the question.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: The question's been called. Do I see five hands? I do see five hands. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. We're voting on ceasing debate. Have you all voted? Senators, these bills are on tight time frames. If you care to vote, please do so. We're voting on ceasing debate. Have you all voted? Senators, we're voting on ceasing debate. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, to cease debate.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Debate has ceased. Chair recognizes Senator Landis to close on his amendment.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Why don't we have a call of the house? You're going to need them anyway for the disposition of the issue. Let me ask for that and I'll make my closing.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you. The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote
