

before a person breathed his last, that criminal was told it's not too late for you. I don't care what path you walk down, I don't care how you've gone down it, it's not too late to turn around and come back. But what do I hear from those who try to show unbelievers, like me, the way? They're going to hell and we want to give them as good a taste of it as we can right now before they get there. Then they're going to turn around at other times and say, but let there be gambling in the churches because they're doing good work. What kind of good work are they doing? What kind of people are they producing? They're producing people worse than a reprobate, such as myself. You need people to stay out of church and start going where I go, wherever that happens to be, 'cause I'll tell you this, if you or yours has a problem, I bet I'm one of those you'll come to, to try to find a way to help mitigate that problem. And I'll bet you'll hire a lawyer and I'll bet you'll stick by that one and you'll do everything you can to help your own. But you're so steely-eyed, so hard-hearted, so hateful, so vindictive that it causes a reprobate, such as myself, to tremble. I tremble for this country and the state of religion...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...when I listen to the comments and observe the conduct of those who are trying to tell me how to live, those who speak so much of Christian charity, yet manifest so little of it. What I'm talking about here though is an unwise decision that the Legislature has made, and I'm trying to get it cut in half. I want to do away with one of those Quonset huts, that's what my amendment will do if you adopt it.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. The question before the body is the adoption of the Chambers amendment to LB 1189. All those in favor vote... Senator, the house is under call. Will senators all check in, please. And Senator Chambers has requested a roll call vote. Senator Schimek, will you check in, please. Senator Jensen. Senator Pirsch, Senator Vrtiska, Senator Matzke. We're waiting for Senator Matzke. The question before the body is the adoption of the Chambers' amendment to LB 1189. Senator Chambers requested a roll call vote. Mr. Clerk, please proceed.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 1710 of the Legislative Journal.) 5 ayes, 38 nays, Madam President.
