reduced, because we don't have the base data to give you even the first set of information, and know where we would start from. That is the problem. The regions, the accountability, the getting of information you would expect, we are not able to get that. I have to struggle for every piece of information I am sharing with you.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Well, okay. Thank you.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thanks, Senator Robinson. Would like to announce guests of Senator Schellpeper, the family of his legislative aide, Kristen Gottschalk, are here from Wahoo. Could you be recognized, please. Senator Janssen, on the Wesely amendment.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you Mr. Speaker, members of the body. Senator Wesely, will you answer a few questions for me, please?

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Wesely, will you answer two questions please?

SENATOR WESELY: Sure.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Senator Wesely, you are saying now that the fund...funded by the amendment will be the four departments which are listed at the top of your handout, right?

SENATOR WESELY: That is right, Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: All right, now will they still keep that region system that we have now for three years?

SENATOR WESELY: Right.

SENATOR JANSSEN: All right, we will keep the regions and people will go to those particular regions where they have been, for three years. All right, and the county will still have participation on those regions?

SENATOR WESELY: Yup, that is right.

SENATOR JANSSEN: So then after three years then the funding
