answers my question.

SENATOR WESELY: Sure, thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK PRESIDING

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Janssen. Senator Jones.

SENATOR JONES: Madam President and members of the body, I need to ask Senator Wesely some more questions.

SENATOR WESELY: Sure.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR JONES: On the chart you said...handed out, a lot of the questions that I was going to ask, Ramon Janssen has already asked, but I would like to ask you a couple more...

SENATOR WESELY: Sure.

SENATOR JONES: The funding by the amendment. Okay, will that funding remain at the county level, the first bunch?

SENATOR WESELY: Well it will for three years.

SENATOR JONES: For three years.

SENATOR WESELY: But then the state would take that over three years from now.

SENATOR JONES: Okay, during that three years, will the administrative board still remain at the same level...

SENATOR WESELY: Yes.

SENATOR JONES: ...at the county?

SENATOR WESELY: That is true, yes.

SENATOR JONES: Everything will remain the same?

SENATOR WESELY: That is right.
