tax and other measures, we are going to be reducing dollars to schools and other places. I just can't say at the same time, yeah, I am going to vote to do that, but, by the way, I voted 70-some thousand dollars, which later might be half a million bucks, so I can have a laptop and make my life a little bit easier. I just can't do that, so I am going to be voting red.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Bernard-Stevens. Senator Jones.

SENATOR JONES: Madam President, and members of the body, could I ask Senator Coordsen a question, please.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Coordsen.

SENATOR JONES: You give a ball park figure of everything, $360,000. How many are you talking about besides 49 of us? Are there going to be one in the bill drafter's room, up at the Clerk's and...

SENATOR COORDSEN: We are talking that encompasses 60 laptops.

SENATOR JONES: Sixty, so we are getting at least...

SENATOR COORDSEN: We have to have...we are not giving all of those away. The Clerk's Office needs several. We have to have several for replacement because as you understand from the tractor radio to the tractor itself, things mechanical and electronic do break down so you have to have some to use to fill in.

SENATOR JONES: Well, with that $360,000 do you get a maintenance man that tries to keep them running along with that deal?

SENATOR COORDSEN: Well, we would hope we have those personnel in computer services right now.

SENATOR JONES: Okay, thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator. Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Madam Speaker and members, I guess I've always pushed for a computer on our desk here to take the place
